

Jean Claude NKURUNZIZA

SPC-Gender Affairs Officer

Law Degree, Master's in International Law of Human Rights and Conflicts, Master's in Gender, Institutions and Society. 10 years as a Senior Police Officer including 5 years in Criminal Investigations, 5 years in Police Project Management and Operations Planning and Analysis. Certified Trainer and Lecture-Assistant at the Burundi Police Academy and other Universities; Topics include Criminal Law, Human Rights, Gender and Conflicts, Security Governance and Community Policing. Various articles written including Human Security Concept in Police Institutions, Gender and Transitional Justice and Demilitarization of Police Forces and the Concept of « GNEP ».

Expertise: Gender Perspective and SGBV Investigations; Child Protection; Protection of Civilians; Human Rights and Law Enforcement Institutions; Security Governance and Community Policing; Training Development and Assessment; Security Sector Reform.

Field Mission: 03 Years in UNOCI, Ivory Coast