

Curriculum Vitae Stephanie TIELES

Name Transnational Organized crime officer

Stéphanie TIÉLÈS

Stephanie TIÉLÈS has 16 years of experience in Police and started her carrier as Lead investigator and Chief of a Regional operational centre in France. In 2009, after joining the 1st European Police mission implemented in the framework of the European security and defense policy posted in Bosnia Herzegovina she took the lead of a specialized operational unit in charge of tackling drug trafficking and other serious organized crime in the French intelligence services.

Stephanie TIELES worked then 3 years as Seconded National Expert at the European Union law enforcement agency (EUROPOL) within the serious and organized crime networks department providing strategic and operational expertise on dismantling major criminal groups in Europe.

She joined the Standing Police Capacity (SPC) in 2014 where she provides guidance on transnational organized crime matters. By being regularly deployed in Peacekeeping operations she assists Police Components in the elaboration of operational documents and contribute to develop their strategic direction in supporting Host State Police to address transnational organized crime.

She holds a Master degree in criminal Law and criminal sciences. General certificate in philosophy, literature and foreign languages (English, Italian and Spanish)

Expertise

Transnational organised crime, Strategic analysis, Project management, International Police Cooperation, Tactical and cover measures, Intelligence management, Criminal investigations, Human resources